Subject: Reframing Risk paper : FINAL draft

Hi everyone –

Please find attached the final draft of the Reframing Risk paper for submission to AJPH. Edits were made based on our last conversation and to decrease word count (see track changes version).

As mentioned previously, this does not exactly fit into the journal's parameters, but they are willing to consider it but want to see a copy first. This is largely formatted for the journal, although I need to finalize the references before sending. Our goal is to send this out to the editor by Monday December 12.

Please send any final showstopping comments to me by COB Friday December 9.

Thanks all!

Maureen
